

Justice Minister Kamikawa received a courtesy visit from Mr. Jeremy Douglas, Regional Representative for Southeast Asia and the Pacific, the United Nations Office on Drug and Crime, on April 11, 2018.

On Wednesday, April 11, 2018, Justice Minister Kamikawa received a courtesy visit from Mr. Jeremy Douglas, Regional Representative for Southeast Asia and the Pacific, the United Nations Office on Drug and Crime (UNODC). An overview of the visit is as follows.

Minister Kamikawa welcomed Mr. Douglas and expressed her desire to strengthen the Ministry of Justice's partnership with the UNODC as they work together to plan the 14th United Nations Congress on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice, which is to be held in Kyoto in 2020 ("Kyoto Congress").

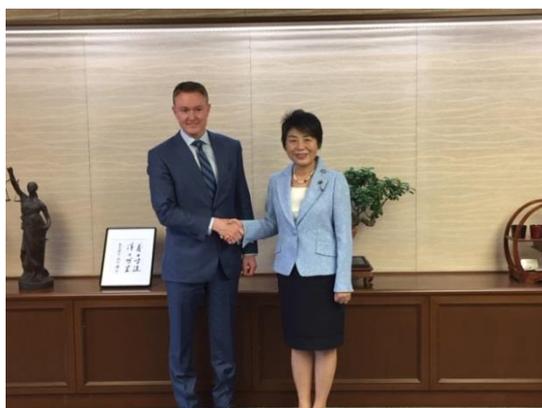

Photo 1: Justice Minister Kamikawa receives a courtesy visit from Mr. Douglas

Mr. Douglas stated that he would like to encourage the ASEAN countries to participate in the Kyoto Congress.

Photo 2: Justice Minister Kamikawa exchanges views with Mr. Douglas