

State Minister of Justice Hiraguchi attended a seminar of a symposium hosted by the Hong Kong Trade Development Council on November 1, 2018.

On Thursday, November 1, 2018, State Minister of Justice Hiraguchi attended the “Think Global, Think Hong Kong” symposium at Hotel New Otani Tokyo, hosted by the Hong Kong Trade Development Council, and delivered a speech entitled “From Deal Making to Dispute Resolution: Legal Risk Management for Japanese Enterprises”.

In light of socio-economic globalization, State Minister Hiraguchi highlighted the importance of dispute resolution, and he also introduced the recent development of initiatives in Japan to promote international arbitration.

Official Website of the Symposium (linked to an external website)

<http://www.thinkglobalthinkhk.com/jp/index.htm>

Photo Session 1

State Minister Hiraguchi, delivering a speech