

Minister of Justice Yamashita received a courtesy visit from 19 criminal justice practitioners on January 16, 2019.

On Wednesday, January 16, 2019, Minister of Justice Yamashita received a courtesy visit from the participants of the 171st International Senior Seminar of the United Nations Asia and Far East Institute for the Prevention of Crime and the Treatment of Offenders (UNAFEI). Thirteen Justice practitioners from 9 countries and 6 Japanese participants are participating in a five-week training program on the Criminal Justice Response to Crime Motivated by Intolerance and Discrimination.

Minister Yamashita welcomed the participants and wished them a fruitful seminar and an enjoyable stay in Japan. At the same time, he encouraged the participants to promote the Fourteenth United Nations Congress on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice, which is to be held in Kyoto in April 2020, in their countries.
