

Items that will be handled in the exchange of opinions

What ideas could be considered for, what should the future direction be for, and what should be prioritized regarding the following items ?

1. Priority content that should be translated and released as translation-related information, beyond the main bodies of Japanese laws (including the level of priority of different Japanese legal fields)
2. The approach to providing information on the translation of Japanese laws to users in an appropriate and attractive manner
3. Initiatives required to raise awareness, credibility and transparency of Japanese laws
4. Others
