

- Date/Place : 7 July (Friday), 2023 Tokyo
- The current international situation has given rise to the importance of upholding and promoting fundamental values such as the rule of law and respect for human rights. Under the “Justice Affairs Diplomacy” initiative which aims to promote such values, Japan will convene the G7 Justice Ministers' Meeting to strengthen G7 solidarity and deliver a strong message to the world.

Themes (Tentative)

- Assist Ukraine's rebuilding efforts (legal technical assistance / capacity building)
- Build cooperation and coordination among G7 countries to promote the Rule of Law
- Connect the G7 and Indo-Pacific (ASEAN) in the field of law and justice

G7 Justice Ministers' Meeting in Berlin (2022)

Strengthening the relationship between G7 and ASEAN

The Meeting will be held back-to-back with the ASEAN-Japan Special Meeting of Justice Ministers (AJSMJ)

- As the only Asian member of the G7, Japan will organize the ASEAN-G7 Interface, which will bring together law and justice ministers from ASEAN and G7. Japan will serve as the “bridge” and contribute to maintaining and promoting international order based on the rule of law.
