

To mid and long term residents (announcement)

● Have you changed your alien registration certificate to a residence card?

Before

Alien registration certificate

After

Residence card

1. The Alien Registration Act has been repealed and an alien registration certificate needs to be replaced with a residence card.
2. If you are a mid or long term resident, please change your alien registration certificate to a residence card at the nearest location among Regional Immigration Bureaus, Immigration Offices of the Bureaus, or their Branch Offices (hereinafter referred to as “Regional Immigration Bureaus, etc.”) (except at Immigration Offices or Branch Offices which have jurisdiction solely over an airport).
3. Because offices are expected to be very crowded right before the expiry date, it is recommended that you change your alien registration certificate to a residence card as soon as possible. You can apply as early as today.

○ Check on the expiry date.

Of those who the new residency management system is applied to;

- In cases where the status of the alien registration certificate is;

Permanent Resident

- In case of a mid or long term resident whose status of the alien registration certificate is;

not a Permanent Resident

(Note 1) The latest status, etc. is printed on the back of the certificate in cases where the individual has received approval of change of status, etc.

(Note 2) An alien registration certificate in folio of the size of a health insurance certificate (A5-size thick paper) has been issued to those under the age of 16.

In case of

Permanent Resident

○ Those who were at the age of 16 or older on the day when the new system came into effect (July 9th, 2012)

The alien registration certificate of those who were at the age of 16 or older on the day when the new system came into effect (July 9th, 2012) will be deemed a residence card until July 8th, 2015 when the new system will have passed three years since it came into effect.

Please change your alien registration certificate to a residence card at Regional Immigration Bureaus, etc. through;

- Application of a residence card

(Application can be made any time during the above period of time.)

or,

- Application of renewal of validity period of a residence card

(Application is accepted from two months before the expiry date of the “deemed period”.)

○ Those who were under 16 years of age on the day when the new system came into effect (July 9th, 2012)

The alien registration certificate of those who were under 16 years of age on the day when the new system came into effect will be deemed a residence card in the following term.

- Those whose 16th birthday will have come by July 8th, 2015 → Until the said birthday
- Those whose 16th birthday will come on or after July 9th, 2015 → Until July 8th, 2015

Please change your alien registration certificate to a residence card at Regional Immigration Bureaus, etc. through;

- Application of a residence card

(Application can be made any time during the above period of time.)

or,

- Application of renewal of validity period of a residence card

(Application is accepted from six months before the expiry date of the “deemed period”.)
