

INFORMATION-SHARING NEEDED WITH YOUR SCHOOL!

Due to a government regulation, the Japanese language education school where you are enrolled is required to report your achievement through education to the Regional Immigration Services Bureau.

Therefore, your willingness is highly appreciated to inform your school of details when you fall under one of the circumstances described below.

Japanese Language
Test

Passed

You take a Japanese language test

You are admitted to an university and the likes

You gain a full-time employment

出入国在留管理庁

Immigration Services Agency